With so many study abroad programs, finding a program that’s the right fit can seem overwhelming. Although this guide is not exhaustive, it is designed to provide you, an Education student, with an overview of some of your options. As you will see, knowing the types of courses that are best for you to take abroad is important when determining your options, so meeting with your academic advisor is a key step early on in the process (more on that below). But first, here are some options.

| I plan to take at least some education related courses while abroad. | Temple Exchanges
Through reciprocal exchange agreements with the following universities, Temple students can exchange places with students from these universities for a semester or academic year. Some programs require sufficient proficiency in the host country language to participate; see our website for more details.
- Korea: Ewha University, Yonsei University
Temple Summer Program
- Jamaica: International Service Learning - Program designed for students of many different academic backgrounds, but courses offered are in Education and Urban Education. | You can participate in programs organized by other U.S. universities, or you can apply directly to an institution overseas. The Education Abroad library has information on external programs, and our advisors can direct you to additional resources. To participate in an external program/direct enroll, you must complete Temple’s External Study Abroad Program approval process.
External Programs / Direct Enroll
External programs that offer education related courses taught in English are available in the following countries: Australia, Denmark, Ireland, New Zealand, South Africa, and the United Kingdom. Students with proficiency in languages other than English may have additional location options.
Recommended External Programs
- Arcadia University
- Alliance for Global Education
- Boston University
- CIEE
- DIS
- IES Abroad
- IFSA-Butler
- The Education Abroad Network (TEAN) |
| I am an Early Childhood Education (ECE) major and plan to take course requirements abroad. | Early Childhood Education majors can fulfill elective requirements while studying abroad. ECE majors can fit a semester-long program into their academic plan during sophomore year with careful planning.
Summer programs are also good options, especially for ECE majors with a Special Education concentration. | Visit Temple’s Education Abroad website for information about all of Temple’s programs abroad.

| I am a Middle Grades or Secondary Education major and plan to focus on courses in my concentration while abroad. | Courses related to World Languages, Social Studies, English and Language Arts are widely available through many of Temple’s study abroad programs.
Visit Temple’s Education Abroad website for information about all of Temple’s programs abroad. | Courses related to World Languages, Social Studies, English and Language Arts are widely available through many external programs.
Courses related to Mathematics and Science will be primarily limited to universities in English speaking countries. Students with proficiency in languages other than English may have additional location options.
Visit Temple’s Education Abroad website for information about external program options. |
| | Summer programs are typically the best for Middle Grade students. | |
| | I am a Human Development & Community Engagement (HDCE) or Adult & Organization Development (AOD) major and plan to take course requirements abroad. | Visit Temple’s Education Abroad website for information about all of Temple’s programs abroad. | Visit Temple’s Education Abroad website for information about external program options. |
| | AOD major majors can fulfill elective requirements while studying abroad, and HDCE majors can take elective and content courses while abroad. Students can fit summer, semester, or academic year study abroad programs into their academic plan. | |
| | I don’t plan to take education related courses abroad. Instead, I plan to fulfill other academic requirements. | Visit Temple’s Education Abroad website for information about all of Temple’s programs abroad. | Visit Temple’s Education Abroad website for information about external program options. |
| | I would like to fulfill GenEd requirements abroad. | | \- Temple Rome offers two courses that fulfill the GenEd Arts and GenEds Human Behavior requirements, respectively.
\- Temple Japan offers a few GenEd courses each semester.
\- Temple in England: London–The City in English Culture program is offering a GenEd course for Summer 2015.
Some appropriate external program courses may fulfill GenEd requirements. GenEd requirements which are most commonly found abroad include Arts, Human Behavior, and Race and Diversity. As part of Temple’s External Study Abroad Approval process, GenEds, like all external courses, must be evaluated and pre-approved. | |
| | By successfully completing (with a C- or better) credit-bearing coursework worth at least three semester hours on a Temple study abroad program that is at minimum 28 days in length, you will automatically fulfill the GenEd World Society requirement. | |
