Take **Mobile Media** in Spain this Summer

MSP 4541: Mobile Media explores the history, theory and contemporary practice of mobile media content creation. Get ready to immerse yourself in Spanish culture as you develop your capabilities as a mobile media content creator!

We will design and create short-form, episodic content while living abroad in Oviedo, Spain. Whether you choose to create nonfiction travel vlogs or a fictional mini-series, each episode of your series will ask you to research and creatively engage with aspects of Spanish culture. Your work will be inspired by a different prompt each week: Cuisine, architecture, and language/customs.

If you love culturally-inspired shows like Emily in Paris and/or are impressed by culturally-informed content creators, seize this opportunity to engage with culture, put your smartphone to work & produce your own episodic media!

This class is open to all majors!

The language of instruction is English.

MSP 4541 fulfills requirements for MSP & CMST majors, and Digital Media Tech & International Comm minors. MSP 4541 requires Junior or Senior standing; Sophomores can register for the cross-list MSP 4571 International Studies in Media and Comm and grad students MSP 5310.
