I plan to take at least some major courses while abroad.

SSW Exchange Program in Germany

Through a reciprocal exchange agreement with FHE University of Applied Sciences Erfurt in Erfurt, Germany, Social Work majors can attend FHE for the fall semester or academic year. Students attend a month-long intensive German language session in the summer and then enroll in social work courses during the semester. Prior German language study is not required, and the program is administered by the School of Social Work. For more information, see the SSW website https://cph.temple.edu/ssa/degrees-offered/international-programs.

I don’t plan to take any major courses while abroad. Instead, I plan to fulfill other academic requirements.

Visit Temple’s Education Abroad website for information about all of Temple’s programs abroad.

External Programs / Direct Enroll

External programs with options to directly enroll into universities offering social work or public policy courses taught in English are available in the following countries: Australia, Ghana, Ireland, New Zealand, South Africa and the UK. Students with proficiency in languages other than English may have additional location options.

To search for programs, visit the websites of each program provider listed below and filter by your discipline on their program search page.

Recommended External Programs

I would like to fulfill GenEd requirements while abroad.

Students who successfully complete (with a C- or better) credit-bearing coursework worth at least three semester hours in a Temple summer or semester study abroad program with a minimum stay abroad of 28-days will satisfy the World Society (GG) requirement.

In addition, some summer faculty-led programs may offer GenEd courses, and Temple Rome and Temple Japan offer several GenEd courses each semester and in the summer.

Students who successfully complete (with a C- or better) credit-bearing coursework worth at least three semester hours in an approved external summer or semester study abroad program with a minimum stay abroad of 28-days will satisfy the World Society (GG) requirement.

Some appropriate external program courses may fulfill GenEd requirements. GenEd requirements which are most commonly found abroad include Arts, Human Behavior, and Race and Diversity. As part of Temple’s External Study Abroad Approval process, GenEds, like all external courses, must be evaluated and pre-approved.
I am interested in pursuing a program that offers service learning, internships, or independent research, but I don’t need credit in social work.

Temple Summer Programs
Temple’s faculty-led summer programs offer courses in a variety of disciplines that have included service learning and community development research. Visit Temple’s Education Abroad website for information about all of Temple’s summer programs abroad.

External Programs Related to Social Work
In addition to the countries listed above, many of our recommended external providers offer service learning or independent study/research opportunities that do not offer social work credit but could be related to social work. Note that proficiency in the host country’s language is not always required to participate.
