<td>Temple administers several programs around the world, including our sites in Rome, Japan, and Spain; faculty-led summer programs; and Exchange Programs around the world. Visit our website for details, deadlines and to apply.</td>
<td>You can participate in approved programs organized by study abroad organizations or other U.S. universities, or you can apply directly to an accredited institution overseas. The Education Abroad website and resource library have information on our approved programs, and our advisors can work with you to determine which program might provide the best fit. To participate in an external program/direct enroll, you must complete Temple’s External Program Approval Process. Visit our website for details.</td>

I plan to take at least some major courses while abroad.

Temple University Rome
Established in 1966 by Tyler, Temple Rome offers seminar and studio courses in Architecture; Art History; Graphic Arts and Design; Painting, Drawing and Sculpture and Visual Studies during the semester. With proper planning, a semester also works for Architectural Preservation and Facilities Management majors. The summer session in Rome often offers Art History; Graphic Arts and Design; and Painting, Drawing and Sculpture courses. Internships in Art, Art History, and Architecture are available for both the semester and summer terms.

Temple University, Japan Campus
TUJ, Temple’s branch campus in Tokyo, offers several options for Tyler students, both during the semester and summer.

- Studio Art: Courses in drawing, painting, 3D design, printmaking, digital photography, and computer imaging are available during semester or summer. Talk with your academic advisor about how they fit into your degree plan.
- Art History: Available semester or summer.
- Architecture & Architectural Preservation: The spring semester Architecture program includes a studio and seminar.
- Facilities Management: The spring Architecture program is open to you, and lower level business courses are available as well.

Roman Villa of Artena Excavation in Italy
is a summer program designed to introduce students to the techniques of archaeological fieldwork. Program participants receive credit for Art History 2117.

External Programs / Direct Enroll
External programs that offer art and architecture courses are available in the following English speaking countries: Australia, Ireland, New Zealand, South Africa, and the United Kingdom. Students with proficiency in languages other than English may have additional location options.

To search for programs, visit the websites of each program provider listed below and filter by your discipline on their program search page.

Recommended External Program Providers:
- Arcadia University
- Boston University
- CIEE
- DIS
- IES Abroad
- IFSA
- SIT Abroad
- Syracuse University
- The Education Abroad Network (TEAN)
- USAC
- St Louis University Madrid

Architecture courses are available on some programs. Consult with your academic advisor to determine if which major requirements can be taken elsewhere.

Art students may also be interested in directly enrolling into a foreign art institution. Contact Education Abroad for eligibility information.
Temple Exchanges
Through reciprocal exchange agreements with the following universities, Temple students can exchange places with students from these universities for a semester or academic year. Unless otherwise mentioned, proficiency in the host country language is not required to participate.

- Australia: Griffith University
  (Architecture, Visual Arts)
- China: Hong Kong Baptist University
  (Visual Arts)
- Korea: Ewha Womans University
  (Architecture, Visual Arts), Yonsei University (Architecture)
- United Kingdom: University of East Anglia (Art History)

I don’t plan to take any major courses while abroad. Instead, I plan to fulfill other academic requirements.

Visit Temple’s Education Abroad website for information about all of Temple’s programs abroad.

I would like to fulfill GenEd requirements while abroad.

- By successfully completing (with a C- or better) credit-bearing coursework worth at least three semester hours on a Temple study abroad program that is at minimum 28 days in length, you will automatically fulfill the GenEd World Society requirement.
- In addition, Temple Rome and Temple Japan offer several GenEd courses each semester and in the summer.

External programs are available in almost every country of the world.

By successfully completing (with a C- or better) credit-bearing coursework worth at least three semester hours on an approved external study abroad program that is at minimum 28 days in length, you will automatically fulfill the GenEd World Society requirement.

Some appropriate external program courses may fulfill GenEd requirements. GenEd requirements which are most commonly found abroad include Arts, Human Behavior, and Race and Diversity. As part of Temple’s External Study Abroad Approval process, GenEds, like all external courses, must be evaluated and pre-approved.

WHEN SHOULD I STUDY ABROAD?
- Meet with your Academic Advisor to discuss how and where study abroad might fit into your academic plan.

WHAT ARE MY NEXT STEPS?
