Study Abroad Program Guide for UNIVERSITY STUDIES

TEMPLE PROGRAM OPTIONS

Temple administers several programs around the world, including our sites in Rome, Japan, and Spain; faculty-led summer programs; and Exchange Programs in Europe and Asia. Visit our website for details, deadlines and to apply.

Temple University Rome

Temple University, Japan Campus

Temple Japan offers a wide range of courses in Anthropology, Asian Studies, Economics, English, Japanese, History, Political Science and Women’s Studies. Credit-bearing internships available.

Temple University in Spain

The Temple Spain program is designed for students who are committed to furthering their Spanish language skills and understanding of Spanish culture. It is intended for students who have, at minimum, successfully completed four semesters of university-level Spanish or the equivalent.

Temple Exchanges

Through reciprocal exchange agreements with the following universities, Temple students can exchange places with students from these universities for a semester or academic year. Some programs require sufficient proficiency in the host country language to participate; see our website for more details.

- China: Hong Kong Baptist University, Xiamen University
- France: Science Po Lyon
- Germany: University of Hamburg, University of Tübingen
- Korea: Ewha University, HUFS, Sogang University, Yonsei University
- Taiwan: National Taiwan University
- United Kingdom: University of East Anglia

Temple Summer Programs

Visit Temple’s Education Abroad website for information about all of Temple’s summer programs abroad.

EXTERNAL PROGRAM OPTIONS

You can participate in approved programs organized by study abroad organizations or other U.S. universities, or you can apply directly to an accredited institution overseas. The Education Abroad website and resource library have information on our approved programs, and our advisors can work with you to determine which program might provide the best fit. To participate in an external program/direct enroll, you must complete Temple’s External Program Approval Process. Visit our website for details.

External Programs / Direct Enroll:

Approved external programs that offer courses within University Studies are available in countries all over the world. Students with proficiency in languages other than English may have additional location options.

To search for programs, visit the websites of each program provider listed below and filter by your discipline on their program search page.

<td>I would like to fulfill GenEd requirements while abroad.</td>
<td>Students who successfully complete (with a C- or better) credit-bearing coursework worth at least three semester hours in a Temple summer or semester study abroad program with a minimum stay abroad of 28-days will satisfy the World Society (GG) requirement. In addition, some summer faculty-led programs may offer GenEd courses, and Temple Rome and Temple Japan offer several GenEd courses each semester and in the summer.</td>
<td>Students who successfully complete (with a C- or better) credit-bearing coursework worth at least three semester hours in an approved external summer or semester study abroad program with a minimum stay abroad of 28-days will satisfy the World Society (GG) requirement. Some appropriate external program courses may fulfill GenEd requirements. GenEd requirements which are most commonly found abroad include Arts, Human Behavior, and Race and Diversity. As part of Temple’s External Study Abroad Approval process, GenEds, like all external courses, must be evaluated and pre-approved. Per university policy, Intellectual Heritage courses cannot be transferred back to Temple and therefore cannot be taken abroad on external programs.</td>
