CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The 13th Annual Global Temple Conference
Perceptions & Perspectives: The U.S. and its Place in the World

Wednesday, February 20th, 2019

We are pleased to announce the 13th Annual Global Temple Conference and invite you to submit your work for inclusion. The conference is a day-long symposium designed to explore and celebrate Temple’s wide array of international work. We welcome student, staff and faculty submissions of your creative ventures from around the world.

We encourage proposals of various formats - papers, panel discussions, posters, films, multimedia, performances, installations, and exhibits. Content should be broadly organized around the four pillars of university excellence: scholarship, teaching, creativity, and service. Prizes for the best student work will be awarded.

About the Day

The conference will be held at Howard Gittis Student Center with a plenary address and presentations and sessions throughout the day. A global information fair will showcase the many opportunities and resources available to those interested in learning about the international and cultural resources at Temple.

Proposal Submission

We invite Temple faculty, students and staff, as groups or individuals, to explore the theme Perceptions & Perspectives: The U.S. and its Place in the World and submit a proposal by October 15, 2018. Proposals for poster submissions are due by November 5, 2018. Proposals should be submitted electronically using our online form. All submissions will be reviewed by the committee, and presenters will be notified of the decisions on or about November 5, 2018 (November 16, 2018 for posters).
