Regional Events at the Bell Tower

Join us at our Study Abroad Regional Events each day at the Bell Tower, where you can ask our advisors and returned students questions and learn more about studying abroad. We will also be giving away treats from each region!

Monday: Study Abroad in Africa and the Middle East.

Interested in studying African aesthetics in Ghana? Would you like to improve your Arabic proficiency by taking language courses in Jordan? If you’re interested in studying abroad in Africa or the Middle East, stop by the Bell Tower on Monday, September 12th, 2016 where you can learn more about all of our Temple and external programs that can take you there! Advisors and returned students will be there to answer your questions.

Tuesday: Study Abroad in Asia.

Do you dream about wandering the streets of Tokyo, Japan? Conducting field research on human anthropology in India? We’ll tell you about these programs and more at the Bell Tower on Tuesday, September 13th, 2016! Learn about all of our Temple and external program opportunities that can take you to places from the rural farming districts of Indonesia to the Land of the Morning Calm. Advisors and returned students will be there to answer your questions.

Wednesday: Study Abroad in Europe.

Thinking about studying French at the Sorbonne, doing a media-related internship in London, or visiting the Sistine Chapel as part of your class in Rome? Stop by the Bell Tower on Wednesday, September 14th, 2016 to learn about opportunities to study in Europe from Dublin’s fair city to the bustling city of Budapest. Advisors and recently returned students will be available to answer your questions.

Fully, celebrate the 50th Anniversary of Temple University Rome with us. Get your commemorative photo at our 50th anniversary photo booth, where you can dress like a gladiator and wield your sword in front of the Colosseum.

Thursday: Study Abroad in Latin America.

If you’ve thought about improving your Spanish in Costa Rica, participating in a service learning program in Jamaica, or learning about Afro-Brazilian culture in Brazil, then this is the event for you! Stop by the Bell Tower on Thursday, September 15th, 2016 to learn about opportunities to study in Latin America and the Caribbean from the oceans of Turks and Cacos to the Igazu Falls in Argentina. Advisors and recently returned students will be available to answer your questions.

Friday: Study Abroad in Oceania.

If you’ve always dreamed of going to a university on the Gold Coast or hiking the islands of New Zealand, stop by the Bell Tower on Friday, September 16th, 2016 to learn about opportunities to study in Oceania. Learn about all of the programs that can take you from the Great Barrier Reef to the glaciers of New Zealand. Advisors and returned students will be there to answer your questions.

Special Events

Festa di Roma.

Join us as we celebrate the 50th anniversary of Temple University Rome at Festa di Roma, an annual event and exhibition hosted by the Tyler School of Art to highlight artwork created by students while studying at Temple University Rome. This year’s Festa will feature the Postcard Project, miniature artwork from The Tiny Biennale and Rome Sketchbooks, as well as an exhibition of Rome MFA work.

Passport Day.

Thinking about studying abroad? You’re going to need a passport! On Thursday, September 15th, 2016, passport agents from the Philadelphia Passport Agency will be on campus from 1pm-4pm to process passport applications for first time passport applicants. Space is limited and appointments are required. RSVP required.

Vira I. Heinz Scholarship Reception.

Are you a female student considering summer study abroad who has never traveled overseas? Are you also interested in leadership skill development and community service? Then the Vira I. Heinz Scholarship and Program for Women in Global Leadership might be for you! Each year Temple University is granted three scholarships in the amount of $5,000+ from the Vira I. Heinz Foundation.

The scholarship must be used toward a summer study abroad program after your sophomore or junior year. If you meet the eligibility requirements below, please plan on attending to learn more about this exciting opportunity.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Female
- U.S. Citizen
- Full-time student
- Never been outside of the U.S. before (even on a vacation), with Canada being the only exception
- 3.0 Cumulative GPA
- Interested in studying abroad on a summer program after your sophomore or junior year

Return Students

Explore International Careers. Recently returned from study abroad and can’t wait to go back after graduation? Attend this workshop, hosted by the Career Center, to learn how to navigate GoingGlobal, an online job resource for international job hunting. Career advisors will be there to guide you through the next steps in making your goals a reality, as well as answer any questions you may have about the process.

Sessions Held Throughout the Year

Throughout the year, we host a variety of other information sessions on education abroad opportunities, including:

- Foundations of Study Abroad
- Program-specific sessions, such as Study Abroad at Temple Rome, Temple Japan, Temple in Spain, and Temple Faculty-led Summer Programs
- Internships Abroad
- Financing Study Abroad
- Scholarships for Study Abroad
- Scholarship Essay Writing Workshops
- School/College-Specific Info Sessions
