Approximate distance from Temple Rome: 450 meters (0,28 miles); distance from residence Medaglie d'oro: 2,5 km (1,55 miles)

Villa Laetitia, a fascinating historical residence lies on the shaded Tiber banks of the roman Della Vittoria neighborhood. A century after its birth, the Villa was acquired by the Fendi Venturini family and was completely renovated bringing it back to its original splendor. The process has favored the sophisticated and highly demanding taste of Anna Fendi Venturini, along with her philosophy of hosting guests as if she would in her private home. All these aspects, bound to the tranquility of the place, all make Villa Laetitia so unique in its style. Guests at the property can witness both the ravishing and intimate scenario as well as being delighted by impeccable service, though never too formal, which gives the true feeling of being at home. Rooms are located both in the Villa's upper floors - Villa Apartement - and in the Garden House - once the property's guest house, giving guests the opportunity to enjoy either an amazing view of the city and the Tiber or to savor the magical peacefulness of the Villa's lush gardens. Thus an uninterrupted discovery in this oasis of peace: each room is a world of its own, distinguished from other environments for its details meticulously chosen to match the "liberty" style of the Villa.
